

The Bala Center for South Indian Dance is Now Enrolling New Students for Indian Classical Dance in Beautiful Rockridge Studio

Veteran teachers, Aggie Brenneman and Deepa Natarajan, will resume teaching Bharata Natyam for new and experienced students from Kindergarten and up (special arrangements can be made for interested pre-schoolers).

Students will learn intricate foot rhythms, hand gestures, and facial expressions to convey stories of Indian culture and mythology from this ancient dance form. Our style of Bharatanatyam represents the Tanjore Balasaraswati style of dance.

For Beginning and Intermediate I students, classes are held on Wednesdays from 2:30pm - 3:30pm

2:30 - 3:00 Pre-School and Kindergarten

3:00 - 3:30 Gr 1 & 2

2:30pm - 3:30pm | Intermediate I Students

For Intermediate II students, high schoolers and adults, technique and repertoire classes are held Tuesday evenings.

5:45 - 6:45 Intermediate II students

6:45pm - 8:00pm Advanced Adults

The fee is $210 for 15 classes in the fall term from Sept. 6 through Dec. 21, and $15 for a drop-in class (no class during Thanksgiving week). The fee for second semester will be determined by the number of classes leading to the student recital in the spring. Checks should be made payable to Aggie Brenneman. Please note, if this amount is difficult for your family, you may enclose an amount that you can afford. Any child who wishes to learn Bharata Natyam should have that opportunity.

*Classes will be held at: Danspace | 473 Hudson St. Oakland, CA 94618

If you would like to enroll for classes, please email your child's name and grade level to Deepa: natarajan.dp@gmail.com or call 617-823-6697 for any questions.
