

Danspace Adult Division Class Schedule September 2019 - June 2020

Danspace classes are offered as a series for Beginning and Intermediate level students, or as Drop-In classes for Advanced level students. Tuition for series classes reflects a discount for signing up for the entire series. Students who are unable to attend a full series may pay for the total amount of classes that can be attended at the regular drop in price. View our monthly schedule for Drop-In classes and current Drop-in pricing.

Tuition is due on the first day of class. We accept Cash, Check, and Credit Card as forms of payment for Adult Division classes. All Sales Final/No Refund or Exchange. During each series, if you need to miss a class, you may take up to 3 make-up classes during the series. No make-up classes can be scheduled after the end of the series. Please consult the instructor for class make-up options. Tuition is not pro-rated for joining late.

There is an optional performance opportunity on Sunday, April 26, at our Matinee Munch Choreographer's Showcase. Classes in series 4 may choose to performance a class piece. This will be discussed between the students and the series instructor and is not mandatory to participate in the series.

To enroll in a series or for more information, email info@danspace or visit our website www.danspace.com

This class is a combination of class/lab time, independent rehearsal time, and feedback time. You will embark on the creation of a dance after a period of small studies, and after settling on a topic that interests you, guided by instructor Mary Armentrout, award winning, internationally acclaimed choreographer. This class is open to teens and adults.

Danspace was founded in 1976 offering classes for children, teens, and adults. Information about its programs can be found at www.danspace.com. The school has been residing at its location in the Rockridge neighborhood of Oakland, California since 1985.
